

2012 WORK PROGRAM

Support the following programs/functions of the U.P. School of Economics, Diliman.

Budgetary Allocation- P 18,632.7

1. Degree Program - Produce 140 graduates in the Bachelors Degree Program and 35 in Graduate Program.
2. Research - Support at least 12 research projects of the faculty of the U.P. School of Economics; target 20 faculty publications.
3. Public Affairs and Extension - Hold at least 25 seminars and professorial lectures.
4. Support the multi-year faculty and graduate research, expand fellowships to graduate students, conduct training and extension for national line-agencies and local governments, undertake policy-oriented researches under the Institute for the Study of Inequality and Poverty (ISIP) and PCED Institute on Public Economics and Regulation (PIPER) and disseminate School of Economics researches through the Philippine Review of Economics.